

Scott M. Ellis Elementary School

Greenville CSD - where everyone Learns, Teaches, Belongs! Spartan STRONG!

October 1, 2018

Dear Families,

There were lots of exciting events this week at Scott M. Ellis Elementary School. On Wednesday, September 26th, all students had the opportunity to watch a puppet show titled “Bully Busters” performed by The Puppet People. The puppet show taught students the importance of standing up for yourself (SUFY), standing up for others (SUFO), and telling a grown up (TAGU), especially if they witness or experience bullying behavior.

Friday was the kick off of homecoming weekend at Greenville Central School District, and the halls were filled with students and staff wearing maroon and white and showing their Spartan Spirit. As part of homecoming weekend, the Run for Readers took place on Saturday morning. The weather was beautiful for the 7th annual 5K run, and lots of runners came out to enjoy the morning color run.

As we look forward to the coming week, please remember that school picture day will be held on Wednesday, October 3rd at Scott M. Ellis. We also encourage students to wear maroon and white for Spartan Spirit Day this Friday, October 4th, as we do the first Friday of every month. School will be closed next Monday, October 8th for Columbus Day. Enjoy the long weekend!

Sincerely,

Erin DuBois
Interim Principal