

Greenville Central School District Anticipates Openings in our Universal Pre-Kindergarten Program

Universal Pre-K is a program that provides free pre-kindergarten classes for families who live in the Greenville school district. The UPK program is available to children who are 4 years old by December 1, 2015. All families are welcome to apply, regardless of income. The UPK classes are held five half-days a week and follow the Greenville Central School District calendar. The UPK providers in our district are Little Angels in Greenville and the Church Mouse Pre-School in Norton Hill. Transportation is not provided by the school district.

Applications will be reviewed as they are received. Acceptance is not based on family income, all are welcome to apply. Currently there are openings in each UPK provider.

Families will be notified of their acceptance after completing the registration process with the Greenville Central School district registrar.

For more information and to apply for UPK please contact Lynette Terrell, District Registrar at 966-5070 Ext. 305.
